

Creating Compelling Characters – a Writing Workshop with Marian Devitt

QUAAMA RENEWAL PROJECTS
moving forward, sharing hope

Free of charge

The writing workshop 'Creating Compelling Characters' is designed to clarify how writers at the top of their craft create compelling and memorable characters.

This workshop is suitable for all levels of current writing practice.

*Saturday 7 August 2021 11am to 2.30pm
Quaama School of Arts Hall*

Marian's publications include short stories; stage and radio productions and non-fiction articles. She is currently working on an historical trilogy. Her qualifications include a Masters of Writing and Literature.

Bookings essential:

<https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/creating-compelling-characters-a-writing-workshop-with-marian-devitt-tickets-162192045775>

or call 0437263128 email quaamarenewalprojects@gmail.com

Maximum 10 people Covid rules apply

Bring writing materials. If you need a laptop or iPad to write for sustained periods make sure your device is fully charged and bring a charger.

A Quaama Renewal Project

This is a Bushfire Community Recovery and Resilience Fund project through the joint Commonwealth/State Disaster Recovery Funding Arrangements

Australian Government

Although funding for this product has been provided by both the Australian and NSW Governments, the material contained herein does not necessarily represent the views of either government.

